

The Revelation of Emery Audubon
Groundbreaking Apologetics Fiction for Young Adults

By Ann Roecker

www.annroecker.com | ann@annroecker.com | www.annroecker.com/contact/
www.annroecker.com/blog | www.facebook.com/annroeckerauthor

BOOK GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do you like the most about The Revelation of Emery Audubon? What is your biggest takeaway?
2. What about Emery Audubon and/or her friends do you relate to the most?
3. What are the forces, people, and circumstances that try to confuse or stop Emery?
4. Why do you think it took Emery so long to notice her schools/university were teaching her lies?
5. Understanding that reformation is the process of changing things from worse to better, what is the process of reformation that Emery experiences?
6. Why is doing the right thing so hard?
7. Have you noticed anything in your own education or culture that's misaligned with God's Word? If so, what do you think you or someone should do about it?
8. What is the cost of looking the other way when corruption is at play?
9. What did you learn from the classroom scenes about the book of Revelation and its symbols? What stood out to you?
10. Have you applied anything you've learned from Revelation or its symbols to your own life? How and what happened as a result?
11. Did you have questions about God or the Bible before reading The Revelation of Emery Audubon that this story answered for you? What were those questions? How were those questions answered?

12. Do small heroic acts matter in the larger story of history?

13. If you were to write/paint/film a story based on a verse or theme in the Bible (apologetics fiction), which verse or passage would you base it on? And why?

Feel free to add your own questions about The Revelation of Emery Audubon.